

Sentiment Analysis

Data is extracted and processed from provided text and existing data sets

The processed data is combined

The combined data is used to derive meaning like creating a sentiment map for a given paragraph.

